

CONTINUES SLUGGISH

Narrowness of the Market More Notable Than Any Day This Week.

More of a Variety in the Bond Market Than in Stocks Yesterday.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The sluggishness and narrowness of the stock market was even more notable to-day than on previous days this week.

There was only such buying of stocks as seemed necessary to prevent the sagging tendency which is normal to a stagnant market.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Money on call easy, 1 1/2-1 3/4 per cent; closing bid, 1 1/2-1 3/4.
